Arsenal of Democracy

The Arsenal of Democracy is a one stop web shop that connects military buyers and prime contractors with an able supply chain. The highlight of this site is a Defense Capabilities Directory, which is populated with a vast resource of material and service providers. Arsenal of Democracy stands ready to provide a direct connection between buyers and suppliers of everything from weapons and munitions to fasteners and CARC painters.

For Military Buyers – Department of Defense and Defense Prime Contractors

Arsenal of Democracy allows you to find companies who have the capabilities you need and the capacity to perform quickly. This directory lists companies that are ready to support defense industry contracts, with a flexible search engine that should satisfy most of your requirements. Each company included in this directory works directly with a regional Procurement Center, which has collaborated with them to ensure accuracy in their listed capabilities.

This directory is only for your use. Access will only be granted to those involved in defense industry contracting, primarily Department of Defense buyers and prime contractor buyers.

Department of Defense and defense prime contractors can obtain access by clicking here to request a login. If you have questions about the site that are not answered in these FAQs, please submit questions or comments of your own.

If you have an urgent supply chain need, please email DC3@michigan.org or call (800) 946-6829. You will connect with our capture team, which stands ready to assist.

For Defense Ready Companies

Arsenal of Democracy's Defense Capabilities Directory includes Michigan manufacturing related companies ready for action in defense contracting. Inclusion is accessed through your regional Procurement Center. To connect with your regional procurement experts, please call (800) 946-6829 or click here for a regional map of Procurement Centers.
